Comments:

Aviation to Alliance:

- Maze if you have ever been there
- Logically lettered buildings
- Programs not promoted enough
- Aviation – move to Alliance – 500 students per year could be supported
- 5-10 years – Air traffic controllers – Not offered but should be
- Alliance – National training
- Logical signage
- Signs that show most used locations like “Optimum Room”
- Don’t know what different colors mean in parking lots
- Sidewalks – don’t know where to enter buildings
- Dark spots around buildings – no light on signs
- Mal or airport – like signage
- Signage on offices
- Side walk from parking to Continual Education offices
- Phones in meeting rooms
- Closet parking for H/C WSTU/323
- Larger room for community events
- Rooms that would facilitate board meetings
- Corporate conference center
- Kitchen – banquet facilities – break out rooms
- Professional workshop space
- Conference center with designated parking, easy to find.

- New Programs: Transportation and logistics
- Expanded Aviation programs
 - Controller programs
 - Avionics
 - Advanced technology
 - Composites
 - Flight program training
- College for Kids Program – space
- Offer Additional Programs – More environmental science programs
- Business and Marketing
- Communication Skills and Recruiting
- Dispute Resolution
- Parenting Skills
- Ethics Diversity – other Federal mandated courses that are needed through Continual Education
- Government contract writing
- ISO 1400 programs – that can serve
- Abuse programs from women coming from abuse centers and need to get into workforce
- Need lab for interpretation lab – don't want it moved to another location (WFAB – in that building) – with more lab space, could have more students.
- Interpretive program exclusively at Northwest campus
- Distance learning classroom needs to grow (TCC can only serve TC)
- Testing Center – and issue – need a much larger testing center
- ACT Testing Center – working on getting larger Testing Center – require special equipment – only campus offering this
- Employer testing
